MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

Employees' State Insurance Corporation

NOTIFICATIONS

New Delhi, the 11th April 1961

No. INS.II(10)-01/60—It is notified for the general information that in supersession of the Resolutions dated 17th December 1955 and 1st April 1959, the Corporation passed the following Resolution in its meeting held on 23rd August 1960.

"Resolved that the Corporation's resolution dated 17th December 1955, granting extended sickness benefit for T.B. and Corporation's resolution dated 1st April 1959 granting extended sickness benefit for Leprosy, Mental and Malignant diseases shall be replaced by the following Resolution:—

"Under the powers vested in it under section 99 of the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, and in supersession of the resolution on the subject of the extended cash benefits dated the 17th December 1955, the sickness benefit granted under Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, shall be extended for persons suffering from T.B. in the manner indicated below:—

1. To be entitled to the Extended Sickness Benefit an insured person shall have been at the beginning of a spell of sickness in which T.B. is diagnosed, in continuous employment for a period of two years or more in a factory or establishment to which the benefit provisions of the Act apply.

Provided that where a person fails to qualify for extended sickness benefit with reference to the first spell of sickness benefit in which T.B. is diagnosed, he shall not be debarred from qualifying for extended sickness benefit in any subsequent spell of T.B. if he can satisfy 2 years continuous service test with reference to that spell.

A "spell of sickness" for this purpose shall mean a period of certified incapacity commencing with a First certificate and ending with a Final Certificate issued in terms of the Employees' State Insurance (General) Regulations, 1950.

Explanation—Employment shall be held to be continuous:—

- (a) for periods preceding the A-day, if the person was in continuous service as defined in section 25-B of the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1947.

- (b) for periods after the A-day, if contributions paid by him in each of the respective completed contribution periods entitled him to sickness benefit in the corresponding benefit periods.

2. The Extended Sickness Benefit shall be granted only if the insured person has exhausted the sickness Benefit due to him under the second proviso to Section 49.

3. (i) Extended Sickness Benefit shall be payable for not more than 309 days during an Extended benefit period.

- (ii) An Extended Benefit period shall consist of a period of 3 years from the date of commencement of the spell of certified incapacity for which an insured person is entitled to Extended Sickness Benefit.

- (iii) The 309 days of extended benefit may not be consecutive and shall exclude the days on which the insured person is entitled to Sickness Benefit at the full rate.

4. Subject to the condition that the rate of Extended Sickness Benefit shall not exceed the full rate of sickness Benefit, the rate of extended sickness benefit during the extended benefit period shall be -/12/- annas a day or half (such half being rounded where there is a fraction of an anna, to the next higher anna) the sickness benefit rate applicable when such benefit was last payable under the Act, whichever is higher.

5. The Extended Sickness Benefit shall be payable if the sickness due to tuberculosis is duly certified in accordance with the Act and the regulations.

6. After the expiry of an Extended Benefit period an insured person may qualify afresh for extended sickness benefit if he can satisfy the conditions in para 1 again provided that the condition of 2 years continuous employment may be satisfied on date following the termination of extended benefit period in cases where incapacity due to T.B., Leprosy, mental or malignant diseases was continuing on the date of such termination.

7. Extended Sickness Benefit shall also be paid to insured persons suffering from Leprosy, Mental and Malignant diseases on same terms and conditions as for T.B., provided that:—

- (i) the eligibility condition in para 1 above is satisfied independently for each disease.

AND

- (ii) the extended benefit period in respect of any two diseases shall not run concurrently.

8. This resolution shall be given effect to as follows:—

- (i) Insured Persons in receipt of Extended Sickness Benefit or insured persons who have been declared eligible for extended benefit but have not exhausted 126 days extended benefit on or before 15th August 1960 shall be deemed to be eligible for the same under this resolution. They shall be entitled to claim the balance of extended sickness benefit upto 309 days within their extended sickness benefit period.

- (ii) Insured Persons who have been diagnosed to be suffering from any one of these four diseases and whose title to the same has not been determined upto 15th August 1960 shall be governed by the above resolution.

- (iii) Cases where T.B., Leprosy, Mental and Malignant disease is diagnosed after 15th August 1960 shall be governed by the above resolution.

- (iv) Cases of Insured Persons who have exhausted their right to extended sickness benefit before 15th August 1960 and who were otherwise not eligible for Extended Sickness Benefit shall not be reopened. However, the Insured Person will be eligible for Extended Sickness Benefit in respect of any spell of incapacity due to T.B., etc. commencing on or after 15th August 1960 if he satisfies the conditions in para (1) of this resolution."

Resolution of the Corporation dated 17th December 1955 was published in Part IV of the Gazette of India dated 16th November 1957 and Resolution dated 1st April 1959 was published in Part III—Section 4 of the Gazette of India dated 31st December 1960.
